Petites Frites

Made with love in the USA

In the run up to Ireland's Pregnancy & Baby Fair this weekend in the RDS, Dublin, I'll be reviewing some adorable and essential baby products. A mother of one I absolutely adore Petites Frites' bold and bright range of baby accessories. If you've ever had to go baby shopping you'll know yourself most baby items are limited to blues and pinks (boring) but Petites Frites has a colour coated collection that will knock your socks off! From ultra violet purples to sunny side up orange they have everything to create a vivid and enchanting environment for your baby. Here's a couple of my favourite pieces:

Reversible bib – $11.00

Contrary to the many available items stocked on the shelves of your local baby store, babies can't stand pastel colours (particularly very young babies). The reason for this being that their eyes are still developing and need sharp colours to focus on. For them pastel colours are like watching a 3d movie with your 3d glasses off. Black and whites are the favourites of newborns but unless you're a big fan of zebra print you might want to invest in some bold primary shades instead. I have a little boy and I love bright blue matched with orange or yellow so I instantly fell in love with this reversible bib. It has 2 layers of double-ply fabric to make them absorbent and extra soft and because they're reversible if one side gets dirty all you have to do is FLIP for baby's next mean time.

Baby blanket – $52.00

I think we should all stop and have a moment to appreciate how cute this kid is..... and back to the blankie. I was just floored by the selection of colour from Petites Frites blankets. You can pick up one of their 50" x 50" blankies from an astonishing choice of 14 different colours! There is truly something for everyone's personal taste. Coloured with low-impact, baby-friendly dyes and machine washable (and dryable) these gentle giants fold down smaller than a yoga mat and can be tucked under a crib or toddler mattress for storage. I know it says on the site that they're for children but props to their model because she makes that blanket look so cosy that I want one for myself!

Teether Blankies – $32.00

Teether blankie, where have you been all my life, these guys are great! With 4 chewers, one for each corner, there's something for baby to gnaw on suitable to their individual needs. Baby got front teeth coming in? Hand-crocheted shapes to the rescue! What about those pesky back teeth though? Never fear, wooden ring is here! Once again these blankies come in a huge variety of colours for every Mother and baby's personality and are just the right size for a toddler to carry around as a comfort blankie.

Petites Frites also stock a range of burp cloths in packs of 4 and 2 for saving Mammy and Daddy's shoulders from mishaps while burping baby.

Petites Frites is: ultra chic eco-friendly baby accessories with a bohemian twist, locally produced with love in the USA. The opposite of fussy, trendy or too cutesy-cutesy, our colourful versions of everyday staples like the bib and burp cloth represent timeless style and enduring quality.
